

THE POWER OF THANKFULNESS

Intro:

- A. Text: Psalms 100
- B. Story about Rudyard Kipling
- C. Thankfulness has the power to make your day and make the day of someone else. Do we really understand this power that we wield?
- D. Today, I want us to examine our text and communicate the transforming power of thankfulness.
- E. Thankfulness will transform.....

I. _____

- A. Psalm 100:1
- B. The recognition of so many blessings in our lives can't help but make us feel good about things and cause us to have a positive demeanor.
- C. We have a better outlook and brighter disposition.
- D. I Thess. 5:18
- E. Psalm 16:7-11

II. _____

- A. Psalm 100:2-3
- B. First, your relationship with _____ and as a result your direct relationships with _____.
- C. Serving becomes a _____
- D. I Tim. 1:12-16
- E. When you live with _____, it just enhances your relationships.
- F. One of the major pillars of _____ and _____ is _____.

III. _____

- A. Psalm 100:4
- B. Your worship becomes more meaningful and _____.
- C. It has been said, "whatever gets your ultimate _____ is what gets your ultimate _____."- Jerry Gillis
- D. A current devotional song expresses this sentiment well. " _____
- E. Psalm 122:1

Conclusion:

Thankfulness will transform you and ingratitude will destroy you- Rom. 1:21-22