MATURITY

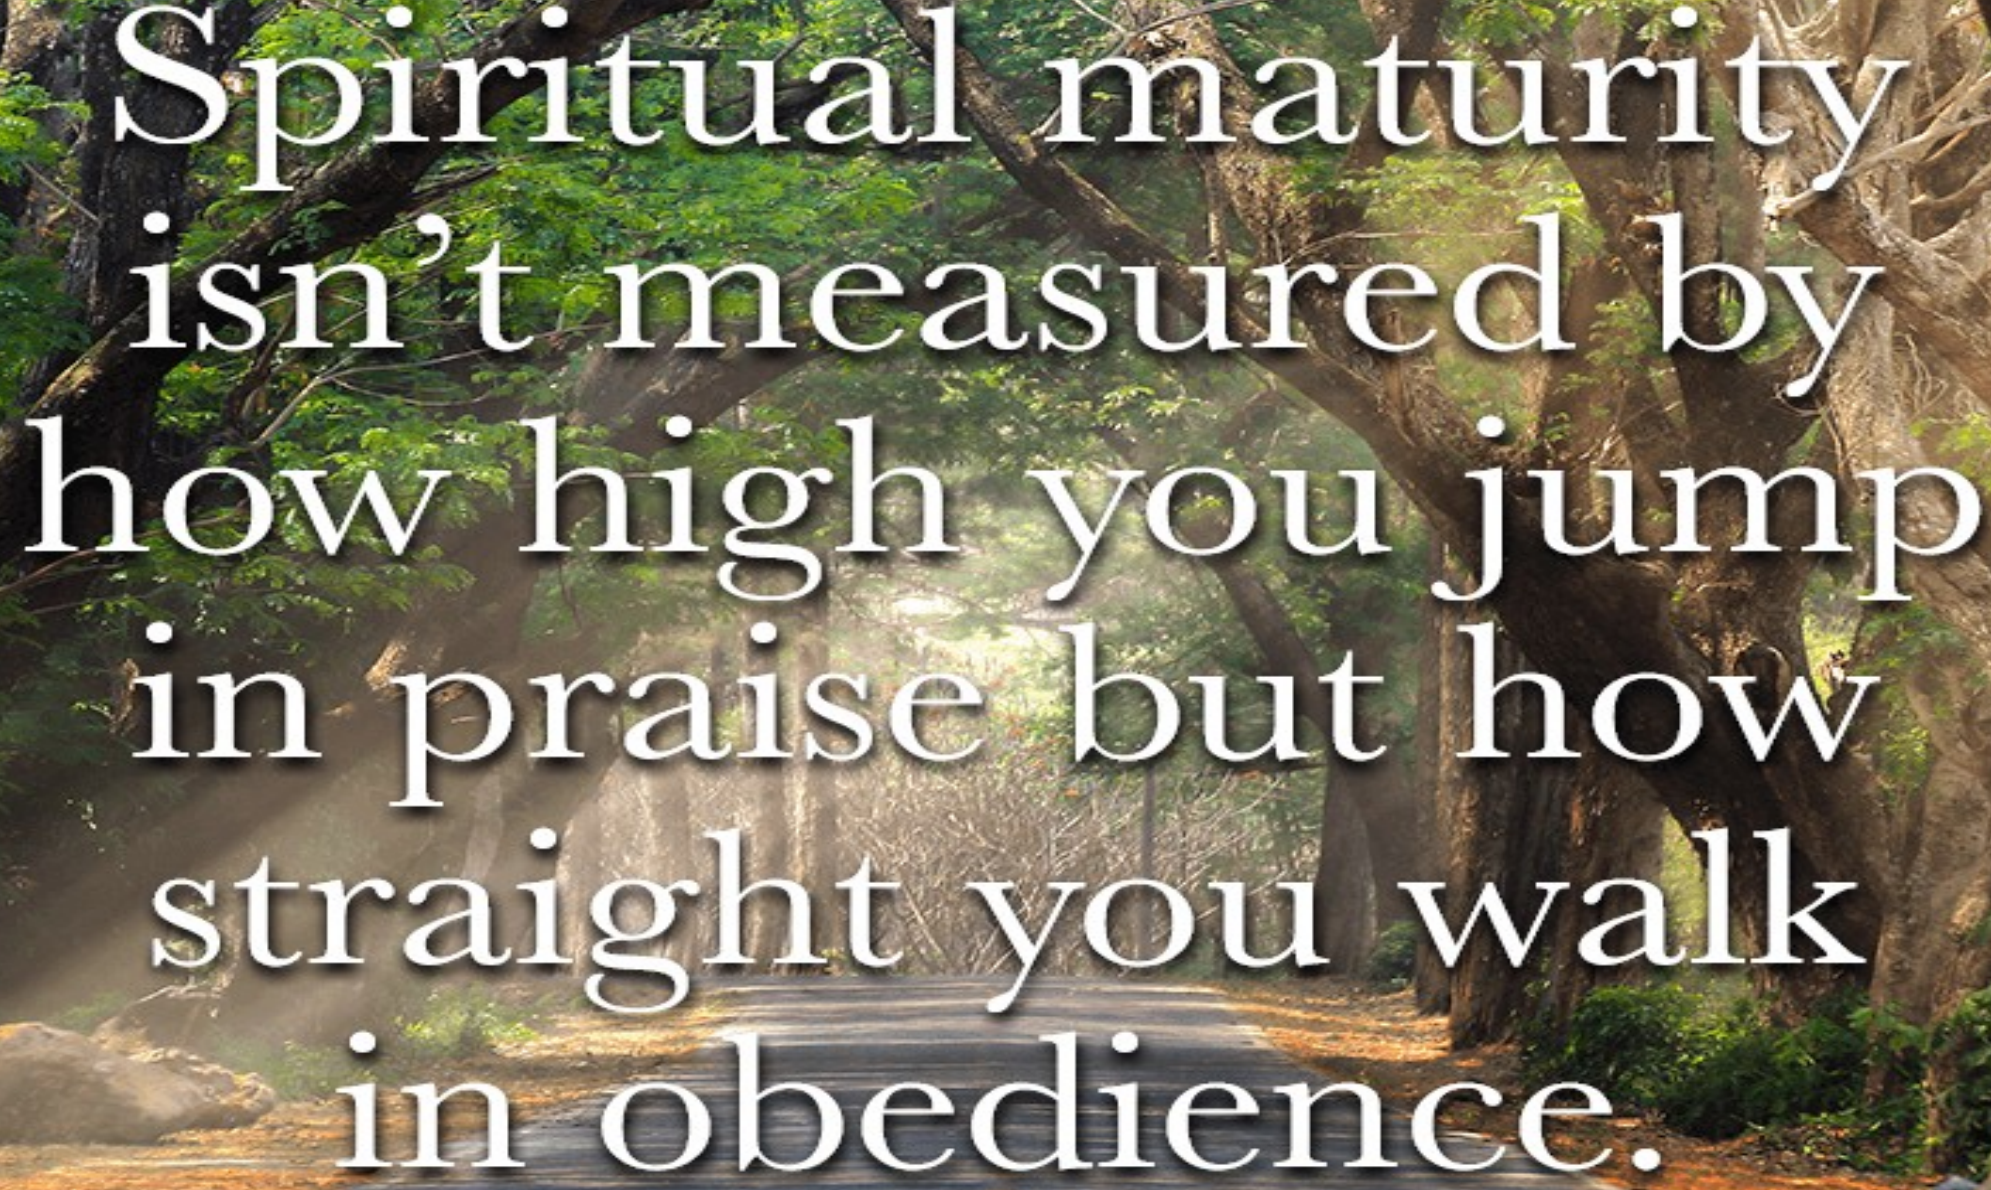

Maturity
is not measured by age.
It's an attitude
built by experience.

Maturity

*is not when we start speaking BIG things. It is when we start
understanding
small things...*

A serene forest scene with a dirt path leading into the distance. Large, ancient-looking trees with thick trunks line the path. Sunlight filters through the dense green canopy, creating a misty, ethereal atmosphere. The text is overlaid in a white, serif font with a subtle drop shadow.

Spiritual maturity
isn't measured by
how high you jump
in praise but how
straight you walk
in obedience.

- 1 Tim. 2:9
 - Some suggest this means overdressing.
 - Others that it means under-dressing.
- If there is any confusion then the phrase “what is proper for women who profess godliness” should settle the matter.
