THE CHURCH AND MY FAMILY:

Engaging and Involving my Family

Genesis 18:19

THE CHURCH AND MY FAMILY:

Engaging and Involving my Family

- Our text indicates that Abraham was a man that the Lord knew would involve his family in the work He needed them to do.
- This example should inspire all parents to think of ways to involve their families in the work of the church.
- Today, we will discuss some practical ways to engage and involve our family in church work.
