II Corinthians 4:6

“Inescapable”

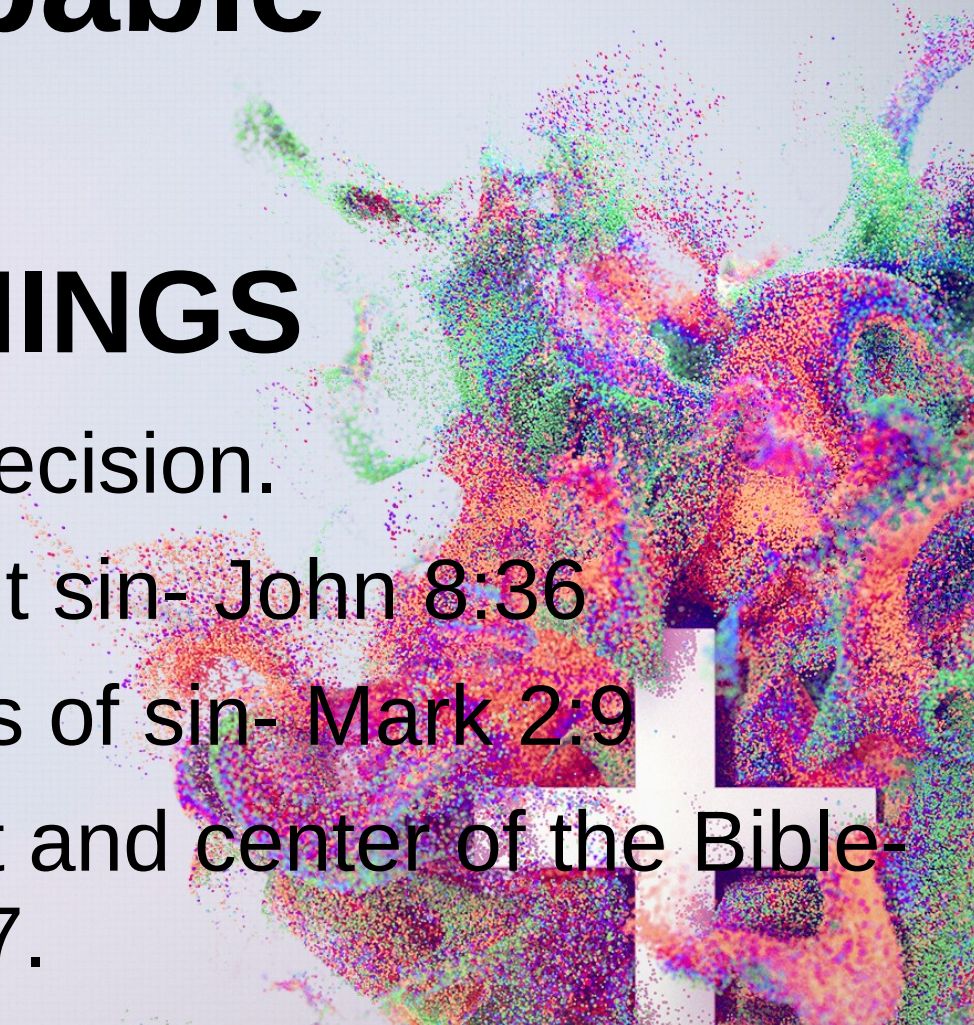

- Many who dis-believe in Christianity do so because they want a water tight argument for Christianity.
- To begin with, a water tight argument would negate the need for faith.
- However, God has left us more than enough evidence. Maybe not so much by way of a perfect argument but by way of a perfect person.
- The inescapable proof of Christianity is Jesus himself.

TEACHINGS

- Jesus's claims demand a decision.
 - He claims to be God- John 10:30, John 3:16-18
 - His followers claim that he is God- Matt. 16:16
 - Let's consider Luke's rational claims- Luke 1:1-4
 - If untrue then these claims make Jesus and his followers liars.

TRUE STORY

- Some critics call the life story of Jesus a “Legend” instead of believing him.
- Three reasons why Jesus’s story is not legend
 - The timing is too early
 - The content is too counter-productive.
 - The literary style is too detailed.
