

THE SWEEPING CURRENTS

PSALM 119:59-60

THE SWEEPING CURRENTS

- Beach trips are always fun but when you have children playing in the ocean, or in Tera's case a knucklehead husband, then you are on constant alert.
- If you are not careful, the currents will take you away from where you started.
- You find yourself drifting away from where you need to be. There is a spiritual lesson here.

THE SWEEPING CURRENTS

- As a human being, I need to always consider my..

FALLIBILITY

- The currents of the ocean are very much like the currents of life.
- If we are not careful, they can cause us to drift.- Heb. 2:1
- Jeremiah 10:23

THE SWEEPING CURRENTS

- As a human being, I need to always consider my..

FALLIBILITY

- The psalmist calls for constant self-evaluation and constant re-adjustment.
- If we are not constantly consulting the word of God then we may begin drifting towards the mindsets of the world.- Ps. 119:9-10

THE SWEEPING CURRENTS

- As a human being, I need to always consider my..

FALLIBILITY

- It's not enough to re-adjust weekly. We must re-adjust daily.
 - Luke 9:23
 - Acts 17:11
- What are the consequences of drifting too far?
Heb. 6:4-6; 17-19

THE SWEEPING CURRENTS

- As a human being, I need to always consider my..

STUBBORNNESS

- David says that he “hastened and did not delay to keep God’s commandments.”
- Three responses offered for delayed obedience:
 - We are just fine.
 - Stop bothering us.
 - We’ll come back eventually

THE SWEEPING CURRENTS

- As a human being, I need to always consider my..
