SENT TO SERVE

- G.O.A.T debates go on all the time.
- Who is the Greatest Of All Time as a Military Leader?
 - Julius Ceasar? Genghis Khan? Alexander the Great? Frederick II of Prussia? Jan Zizka?
 - According to Ethan Arsht of Towards Data Science it is Napoleon Bonaparte and he backs this up w/math.
 - He uses the W.A.R. calculation. No kidding!

SENT TO SERVE

- Now there was also a dispute among them, as to which of them should be considered the greatest. And He said to them, “The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and those who exercise authority over them are called ‘benefactors.’ But not so among you; on the contrary, he who is greatest among you, let him be as the younger, and he who governs as he who serves. For who is greater, he who sits at the table, or he who serves? Is it not he who sits at the table? Yet I am among you as the One who serves. LUKE 22:24-47

SENT TO SERVE

- This argument takes place according to Luke immediately following the Lord's Supper, where Jesus talks about the kingdom being fulfilled.
- Everybody is jockeying for position in the new kingdom. The excitement is mounting. It is time to bring in a new regime with Jesus as king.
- This wasn't the first or only time that this debate happened.- Luke 9:24-27 and Mark 9:33-37.
- If you want to be recognized as the greatest then serve.

SENT TO SERVE

- Statement by Michael Krauszer
- “Without a doubt, Jesus was the ultimate servant. Although He was praised as a great teacher and even had a decent following, He made sure to teach them to be servants by actually doing it himself. Despite having the authority to get anything He wanted, have people praise and pamper him, He did the exact opposite by lowering himself and serving others.”
